Case No. 2:24-CV-00198

NOTICE OF RELATED CASES
PURSUANT TO LOCAL RULE 42.1

RELATED CASE NOS.:
2:24-CV-00103-GMN-MDC
2:24-CV-00150-JCM-DJA
2:24-CV-00164-GMN-NJK

1 Plaintiffs Daniel Rosenbaum, Reneldo Rodriguez, and Thomas Caron, individually and on
 2 behalf of all others similarly situated in Rosenbaum v. Permian Resources Corp., et al., hereby file
 3 this Notice of Related Cases.

4 I. Title and Case Number of Each Possibly Related Action:

- 5 • Rosenbaum v. Permian Resources Corp, et al., No. 2:24-cv-00103-GMN-MDC, filed
 6 January 12, 2024 (“Rosenbaum”).
- 7 • Andrew Caplen Installations LLC v. Permian Resources Corp, et al., No. 2:24-cv-
 8 00150-JCM-DJA, filed January 22, 2024 (“Caplan Installations”).
- 9 • These Paws Were Made For Walkin’ LLC v. Permian Resources Corp, et al., No.
 10 2:24-cv-00164-GMN-NJK, filed January 24, 2024 (“These Paws Were Made For 11 Walkin’”).

12 II. This Case Should be Related to *Rosenbaum v. Permian Resources Corp., et al.

13 This case should be related to Rosenbaum v. Permian Resources Corp., et al. because both 14 cases involve the same claims based on the same underlying conduct and were brought against 15 the same defendants on behalf of related putative classes (consumers of gasoline and consumers 16 of home heating oil).

17 The complaints in all four cases assert the same forty-six antitrust, unfair competition, and
 18 consumer protection claims against the same eight defendants: Permian Resources Corporation
 19 f/k/a Centennial Resource Development Inc.; Chesapeake Energy Corporation; Continental
 20 Resources Inc.; Diamondback Energy, Inc.; EOG Resources, Inc.; Hess Corporation; Occidental
 21 Petroleum Corporation; and Pioneer Natural Resources Company (collectively, “Defendants”).
 22 Each case presents the same facts and evidence to claim that Defendants conspired to restrict the 23 production of shale oil to artificially inflate the price of gasoline and oil sold to consumers in the 24 United States. The only differences are that the instant action brings claims on behalf of persons
 25 or entities who purchased home heating oil, while Rosenbaum brings claims on behalf of 26 consumers of gasoline for personal use from gas stations, and Caplen Installations and These
 27 Paws Were Made For Walkin’ bring these same claims on behalf of persons or entities that 28 purchased gasoline or diesel fuel from a gas station or truck stop for commercial use.

1 The legal and factual questions at issue in the cases overlap such that assignment to a single
2 district judge will promote judicial efficiency and prevent inconsistent results. Therefore, relating 3 these actions would be far more efficient than keeping them separate.
